Happy Halloween!

Keep your eyes peeled on our socials and next weeks newsletter for photos of our amazing Wizarding week and all the super, spooky activities we got up to!

> Thank you, The Kip Team

UNBE-LEAF-ABLE WORK!

Writing

Well done to Maxi for his incredible writing about a spooky house. He worked so well to remember his punctuation, finger spaces, adjectives and adverbs. He also applied new "spooky" words such as 'haunting' to his work!

Maths

We are super proud of Jess for absolutely smashing her arithmetic this week. Her number knowledge is quickening and Jess is able to apply past learning to new concepts too. Well done Jess, keep up the hard work!

Reading

A huge well done to Mia who has been working well towards reading Romeo and Juliet. There are some tricky concepts in this famous tragedy and she worked well to understand the social context and language behind

WINNERS OF THE WEEK!

Trophies won!

Well done to our fabulous winners this week!

A special mention to our student of the week Henry, who showed great determinati on and focus in his session!

Raffle winners...

Well done to Ben for winning the homework tombola this week!

We have also had a huge amount of you complete extra work and activities at home which we have loved seeing!

PUPIL VOICE

Name: Imogen

I enjoy being given a success criteria and being able to colour coding this. I like doing my writing and then looking for my success criteria after and seeing how well I did.
