UNBE-LEAF-ABLE WORK!

Writing

A huge well done to Sophia in Year 11, who has been working very hard on her paragraph structure. She is writing much more confidently and her structure is greatly improved! Well done!

Maths

Amy in Year 9 has been wowing her tutor Lauren by converting really tricky percentages into fractions and even asking for more to do! Amazing work, Amy!

Reading

We are so proud of Zoe's enthusiasm and work ethic! She has been very diligent when studying Macbeth in Year 11 and is making insightful comments about the themes in the play. She is also doing a great job of remembering her quotes!
