TOILET TALK

Following a few recent incidents where the toilets have been left in an unacceptable state, we kindly ask that you remind your child of the importance of respecting the shared facilities in our tuition centres.

Our toilets are used by all students, tutors, and helpers. We ask every student to leave them clean, tidy, and ready for the next person. Simple habits such as flushing the toilet, disposing of rubbish appropriately, and cleaning up after themselves help to ensure the facilities remain pleasant for everyone.

We appreciate your support in reinforcing these expectations at home and helping us maintain a clean and respectful environment for everyone.

A NOTE FROM TUTORS

The weather is set to heat up again next week - don't forget that our Billericay centre is air conditioned and our Wickford centre is kept lovely and cool with fans so we will remain open as usual. If the heat is too much for your child, do consider switching to an online session next week so they can "attend" their tutoring from the comfort of their own home!

Thank you,
The Kip Team

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

The Author of the Month for July is the amazing Cressida Cowell! She is a British children's author and illustrator best known for the How to Train Your Dragon series, which tells the tales of Hiccup Horrendous Haddock the Third and his Viking adventures.

REPORTS

Once you have received your child's school report, we would be grateful if you could share any feedback, targets, or areas for development with your child's tutor. This information can help us tailor our sessions to better support your child's learning and progress.

Borrow a book from one of our centres to dive into the fantasy worlds full of myth and adventure that Cowell has created! If you love stories of bravery, exploration and friendship, these are the books for you!
